Applicability

This document is a Modifyre Event Policy. This document applies to all participants wishing to attend Modifyre.

Purpose

To provide information and guidance on the process and underlying ethos for ticketing for Modifyre.

Summary

Tickets are the key to creating Modifyre. With limited exceptions, everyone buys one, including our Event Production Team. This is in an effort to promote crowd-creation over commercialisation, and is in-line with the ethos of Modifyre and the objects of Burn Arts Inc.

Tickets fund Modifyre. The money raised goes towards essential infrastructure, insurances, permits and grants for art and theme camps. We are almost entirely dependent on ticket revenue to fund the event.

Your ticket purchase is the baseline to participation at Modifyre. There is no free entry for artists and performers, no passes for media, or special discounts for volunteer crew.

1 General Ticket Types

With the exceptions outlined below, every participant buys a full-price ticket to Modifyre.

For Modifyre 2020, we charge a nominal fee. A small portion of this fee is allocated to carbon offsetting, with all remaining proceeds being directed to the Inglewood community.

There are three ticket types this year:

Adults 18+: $10 + booking fee

Children 14-17: $10 + booking fee

Children 13 and under: Free

2 How to Purchase
